GOOD GOFFEE.

Everybody wants it, but very few get it, because most people do not know how to select coffes, or it is spoiled in the roasting or making. To obviate these difficulties has been our study. Thurber's package coffees are selected by an expert who understands the art of blending various flavors. They are roasted in the most perfect manner (it is impossible to roast well in small quantities), then put in pound packages (in the beas, not ground,) bearing our signature as a guarantee of genuineness, end each package contains the Thurber recipe for making good Coffee, We pack two kinds, Thurber's "No. 34," strong and pungent; Thurber's "No. 41," mild and rich. One or the other will suit every taste. They have the three great points, good quality, honcet quantity, reasonable Ask your Grocer for Thurber's rousted Caffee in pound packages, "No. 14" or "No. II." Do not be put off with any other kind-your own palate will tell you what is best.

Where persons desire it, we also furnish the "Ideal" Coffee-pot, the simplest, test and cheapest coffee-pot in existence. Grocers who sell our Coffee keep them. Ask for descriptive circular.

AN OLD SALT.

Canon Basil Wilberforce, on January 25th, at a meeting of the South-wark Help-Myself Society, described a recent visit to a mission-room at the London Docks, where he had asked any one who wished, to get up and say what God had done for them. An old sailor rose and said how bad he had been-felt that he was even a devil's castaway; but six years ago, in that little room, he was led to see that he was a great sinner, but that Christ was a great Savior, and that on the Cross was nailed every one fo his sins. He signed the pledge and threw away his pipe, and had been upheld by God, because every morning he prayed that he might be protected. Returning recently from Hong Kong, this old sailor had an accident and was badly scalded; he was very ill. When he began to re-
